

Adult Textured Turnover Sweater

By Amelia Makes

The Textured Turnover Sweater is a classic boatneck pullover made in a slightly textured stitch. The entire sweater is crocheted in one piece, including the cuffs. After two seams, the only thing added is the bottom ribbing.

Includes sizes XS-5XL

Pattern Information

Materials Needed

- 1,125-2,170 yards of heavy worsted/medium weight yarn-see chart below(Lion Brand's Pound of Love yarn in COLOR Pumpkin Pie is shown)
- K/6.5mm hook
- Tapestry needle(optional, for weaving in ends)
- Scissors

Yardage note: In addition to the exact calculation for yardage in each size of this sweater, 2% has been added as a buffer and also to cover the yarn needed for seaming. Here is a breakdown by size"

Size	XS	S	M	L	XL	2XI	3XL	4XL	5XL
Yards Needed	1,125	1,261	1,291	1,495	1,594	1,776	1,844	2,053	2,170

Gauge

The Gauge for this sweater is 15sts x 12 rows of STITCH TYPE per 4x4" square(or 2x2", etc).

Remember that meeting gauge is more important to getting a good result than actually using the exact size hook that is listed.

Sizing

Here is a guide to sizing this sweater, based on the hip size in inches at the largest point. After sizing the sweater in this way, a small amount of positive ease is provided in the pattern for a comfortable fit.

------	----	---	---	---	----	-----	-----	-----	-----

Hip Size in inches	38	40	42	44	48	52	56	60	64

Skill Level

The skill level for this project is advanced beginner to intermediate. Foundation stitches are used when adding the sleeves, and slip stitch ribbing is done both in the construction of the sweater and added to the bottom after seaming. Both of these techniques may be best practiced beforehand if they are new to you.

Abbreviations Used

- ch - chain (yarn over, pull loop through)
- ch-space - the space created from chain stitches in a previous row
- sc-single crochet(insert hook, yarn over, draw up a loop, yarn over, and draw through two loops)
- SS-slip stitch(insert hook, yarn over, draw up a loop through the work and through the loop on your hook)
- ssBLO-slip stitch in the back loop only
- ST/STS - stitch/stitches

Also used-foundation single crochet

Pattern Directions

Sweater Front

Ch 38(40,42,44,48,52,56,60,64)

Row 1: sc,ch, and sc again in the second ch from the hook. skip a ch and (sc,ch,sc) in the next stitch Repeat for the remainder of the row. Total stitch count should be 57(60,63,66,72,78,84,90,96). Ch1 and turn.

For the next 27(29,29,29,29,31,31,31,33) rows:(sc,ch,sc) in every ch-space across the row. Total stitch count should still be 57(60,63,66,72,78,84,90,96). Ch1 and turn.

Starting the Sleeves

Continuing from the end of row 28(30,30,30,30,32,32,32,33), ch59(59,59,59,61,61,61,63,63).

Row 29(31,31,31,31,33,33,33,34):skip a ch and ss10(10,10,10,12,12,12,14,14) (this starts the first cuff of the sweater). Skip a ch and (sc,ch,sc) in the next ch repeat from * until you get back to the existing sweater panel. Continue to (sc,ch,sc) in every ch-space of main body portion already worked to end of the row.

At end of main body panel, work 48sts in foundation single crochet.
Ch11(11,11,11,13,13,13,15,15) and turn.

Note: this last section that you have done, which starts the second sleeve, might look a little longer than the first sleeve at this point. But, this should change once you do another row or two..

Row 30(32,32,32,32,34,34,34,35): skip a ch and ss10(10,10,10,12,12,12,14,14), *Skip a st and (sc,ch,sc) 24 times. Then, (sc,ch,sc) in every ch-space across the sweater front panel and first sleeve. SsBLO10(10,10,10,12,12,12,14,14) to finish the row. Total stitch count should be 221(224,227,230,240,246,252,262,268)Ch1 and turn.

For the next 10(12,12,16,16,18,18,20,20) Rows: ssBLO10(10,10,10,12,12,12,14,14), (sc,ch,sc) in every ch-space, ssBLO10(10,10,10,12,12,12,14,14). Ch1 and turn.

Shaping the Neck

For the next 5 rows: ssBLO10(10,10,10,12,12,12,14,14), (sc,ch,sc) in the first 28(29,29,30,31,32,33,34,35) ch-spaces. SsBLO33(30,33,30,30,30,30,30). (sc,ch,sc) in the last 28(29,29,30,31,32,33,34,35) ch-spaces. ssBLO10(10,10,10,12,12,12,14,14). Ch1 and turn.

Row 45(49,49,53,53,57,57,59,60): ssBLO10(10,10,10,12,12,12,14,14), (sc,ch,sc) in the first 28(29,29,30,31,32,33,34,35) ch-spaces. Ch39 and skip the ss section. (sc,ch,sc) in the last 28(29,29,30,31,32,33,34,35) ch-spaces. ssBLO10(10,10,10,12,12,12,14,14) for a total of 227(233,233,239,249,255,261,272,277) stitches. Ch1 and turn.

Sweater Back

Row 46(50,50,54,54,58,58,60,61): ssBLO10(10,10,10,12,12,12,14,14), (sc,ch,sc) in the first 28(29,29,30,31,32,33,34,35) ch-spaces. ss39. (sc,ch,sc) in the last 28(29,29,30,31,32,33,34,35) ch-spaces. ssBLO10(10,10,10,12,12,12,14,14) for a total of 227(233,233,239,249,255,261,272,277) stitches. Ch1 and turn.

Row 47(51,51,55,55,59,59,61,62): ssBLO10(10,10,10,12,12,12,14,14), (sc,ch,sc) in the first 28(29,29,30,31,32,33,34,35) ch-spaces. ss39BLO. (sc,ch,sc) in the last 28(29,29,30,31,32,33,34,35) ch-spaces. ssBLO10(10,10,10,12,12,12,14,14) for a total of 227(233,233,239,249,255,261,272,277) stitches. Ch1 and turn.

Row 48(52,52,56,56,60,60,62,63): ssBLO10(10,10,10,12,12,12,14,14), (sc,ch,sc) in the first 28(29,29,30,31,32,33,34,35) ch-spaces.. Skip 2sts, then in the next st (sc,ch,sc). repeat from * to * 13 times for a total of 39sts across the back of the neckline. (Sc,ch,sc) in the last 28(29,29,30,31,32,33,34,35) ch-spaces. ssBLO10(10,10,10,12,12,12,14,14). Ch1 and turn.

NOTE: the way that stitches were added to create the neck opening and then skipped two at a time in this last row, allows the neckline to have some stretch. Plus, it ultimately keeps our stitch count the same and therefore a bit simpler to keep track of.

For the next 15(17,17,21,21,23,23,25,25) rows: ssBLO10(10,10,10,12,12,12,14,14), (sc,ch,sc) in every ch-space, ssBLO10(10,10,10,12,12,12,14,14). Ch1 and turn.

Row 64,70,70,78,78,84,84,88,89): ssBLO10(10,10,10,12,12,12,14,14), (sc,ch,sc) in the first 45(46,47,48,50,52,54,56,58) ch-spaces for a total of 145(148,151,154,162,168,174,182,188) stitches. Ch1 and turn.

Row 65(71,71,79,79,85,85,89,90): (sc,ch,sc) in the first 21(22,23,24,26,28,30,32,34) ch-spaces for a total of 63(66,69,72,78,84,90,96,102) stitches. Ch1 and turn.

For the next 27(29,29,29,29,31,31,31,33) rows: (sc,ch,sc) in every ch-space across the row. Ch1 and turn. Bind off. In total, your sweater should have 92(100,100,108,108,116,116,120,123) rows.

Seaming up the Sweater

Fold the sweater in half so the neckline is at the top. Line up the front and back edges of the sweater, and the bottoms of the sleeves. Seam from the bottom of the sweater, up the side, and down the bottom of the sleeve. Repeat on the other side:

Note: if ss are turning out too tight for these seams, try adding a ch1 in-between each ss.

Adding the Bottom Ribbing

At one side of the sweater bottom, add your yarn and ch 11(11,11,11,13,13,13,15,15)

Row 1: skip a ch and ss10(10,10,10,12,12,12,14,14). Ss into the next stitch along the bottom edge of the sweater. Turn.

Row 2: skip the last ss you did and ssBLO in the remaining 10(10,10,10,12,12,12,14,14) sts. Ch1 and turn.

Row 3: ssBLO in the 10(10,10,10,12,12,12,14,14)ribbing sts. ss into the next stitch . Turn.

Repeat rows 2-3 until you get all the way around the sweater The exact number of rows may vary. Ideally, finish on a row 2 so that the seam can go from the end of the ribbing inward.

To seam the ribbing, ssBLO of your last row and BLO of the first row together. Ss to the sweater end so there's no hole, and bind off.
